

11-11.15am	Free Talk The Architecture Space	Introduction to 'Relics of old London: Photography and the Spirit of the City' Hear from Jeremy Melvin about this intriguing exhibition of nineteenth-century photographs of buildings then at risk of demolition, learning about the society who commissioned these evocative photographs and why they chose the buildings they did.
11.30am-12pm	Summer Exhibition Talk Architecture Room; Free with an exhibition ticket	The Art of Model-Making Join Christian Spencer Davies of AModels in the Architecture Room to hear about the art of model-making.
11.30am-1pm	Free Family Workshop Meet in the courtyard; materials provided	Sketching in the Courtyard Artist Jeanette Barnes introduces sketching as a means of looking more closely at the architecture around us. The ornate architecture of Burlington House provides ideal subject matter and inspiration.
12-12.30 pm	Free Tour Meet in the Front Hall	Behind-the-scenes: Burlington House Explore the John Madejski Fine Rooms originally designed for eighteenth-century entertaining on a grand scale and hear about subsequent work by William Kent and Samuel Ware, and their recent restoration. Led by Stephen Richardson .
12.45-1.15pm	Free Tour Meet on level 2, Sackler Landing	Behind-the-scenes: Sackler Wing of Galleries & Library Hear about the design of Foster + Partners' RIBA award winning Sackler Wing of Galleries and visit the exquisite library designed by H.T. Cadbury Brown RA. Led by the Royal Academy's Director of Academic Affairs MaryAnne Stevens and Library Curator Nick Savage .
1-3pm	Free Family Workshop The Sackler Wing of Galleries	"Midsummer Workshop" An opportunity for families to take part in a transformation of the Sackler Galleries by contributing to a group installation through drawing and making. An event specially created by Yuli Toh and James Lloyd-Mostyn of Toh Shimazaki Architecture.
1.30-2pm	Free Tour Meet at RA Schools entrance	Behind-the-scenes of the Royal Academy Schools Visit the RA Schools' Life Room and famous Casts Corridor designed by Sydney Smirke RA and still used by current students. Led by Peter Schmitt , former Surveyor of the Fabric for Burlington House.
1.30-4.30pm	Drop-in Library Session RA Library and Print Room	Curator's Introduction to the Library and Print Room An opportunity to talk to Collections Curator Nick Savage and view architectural drawings relating to Burlington House. See the Print Room exhibition, John Yenn RA: Pioneer of the Architectural Exhibition , displaying drawings for theoretical, unexecuted buildings by the great architectural draughtsman.

2–2.30pm	Summer Exhibition Talk Summer Exhibition Galleries; free with an exhibition ticket	Crossing Disciplines Sculptor John Maine RA and architect Sir Richard MacCormac RA select works from the other's discipline and talk about why they consider it of interest or relevant to their own practice. Discussing and debating the concepts that arise, we investigate the relationship between sculpture and architecture.
2–3.30pm	Free Family Workshop Meet in the courtyard	Sketching in the Courtyard With artist Jeanette Barnes . See 11.30am listing for details.
3–6pm	Free Installation The Sackler Wing of Galleries	View the installation created by families in the Midsummer Workshop led by Yuli Toh and James Lloyd-Mostyn of Toh Shimazaki Architecture.
3.30–4pm	Free Family Tour Meet in the courtyard	Burlington House Families explore Burlington House with Francesca Herrick , searching for clues in the architecture and decoration that reveal the building's rich and illustrious history. Piece together its transformation from seventeenth-century town palace to modern-day arts institution.
3.30–4.30pm	Ticketed Debate £10/£5 (includes Summer Exhibition entry and a drink)	Creative Collaboration Talk Join us for an open and revealing discussion that offers insights into the collaborative process between artist, designer and writer Mark Pimlott , painter Brad Lochore and architect Tony Fretton , helping us to understand the creative synergy such relationships can generate. Chaired by Vivien Lovell .
4–4.15pm	Free Talk The Architecture Space	Introduction to 'Relics of old London: Photography and the Spirit of the City' Hear from Owen Hopkins about this intriguing exhibition

Summer Exhibition 2010

Main Galleries (14 June – 22 August)

Sponsored by Insight Investment

Adult £7, 60+ / Disabled (Disabled Carers free) £6, NUS £5, 12–18 years / Income Support £3, 8–11 years £2, 7 years and under Free

Free RA Exhibitions (open 10am–6pm)

Sir Henry Rushbury RA (1889–1968): Drawings, Watercolours and Prints

Tennant Gallery (4 June – 12 September)

This display of drawings, watercolours and prints by Sir Henry Rushbury RA offers a rare opportunity to reappraise the work of one of the great British painter-etchers.

Relics of old London: Photography and the spirit of the city

Architecture space (Until 22 June)

This exhibition presents a selection of photographs taken by the Society for the Photographing of Relics of Old London in the 1870s and 1880s. They sought to capture old London threatened with destruction.

Royal Academy Schools Show 2010

Schools Studio (16 June – 27 June)

Final-year exhibition by RA Schools students

For the RA's younger visitors, Summer Exhibition Art Detective guides and Architecture Art Detective guides (exploring the architecture of Burlington House) are available FREE from the Education Desk today. Also, look out for our new Architecture Education Guide, which will be available to teachers and students at the Education Desk and on sale in the RA Shop from the end of July!