THE UNKNOWN MONET STUDENT COMPETITION

Win £1,000 of art supplies for your school and see your students' artwork on display at the Royal Academy of Arts!

PARTICIPATE

The Unknown Monet reveals the importance of colour, light, and drawing in his paintings.

Explore your neighbourhood as Monet did and create artwork with your students that explores colour and light. Use your local environment as further inspiration.

Please use any media (pastels, pencil, charcoal, paint, collage, etc).

All visiting student groups are invited to participate. Artwork is displayed on the Norman Shaw landing for the duration of the show.

SUBMITTING ARTWORKS

Please do not send in original artwork. Submit digital photographs of finished student works on CD.

Please post your CD and submission form to
The Unknown Monet Student Competition
Attention: Sarah Drake
Royal Academy of Arts, Burlington House,
Piccadilly, London, W1J 0BD Telephone: 020 7300 5704

Please clearly label all CDs with:

1. Art teacher's name and contact number
2. School name
3. School address

Your photos will be uploaded (labelled with school name) to a display screen on the Norman Shaw Landing for your class to visit and admire.

DETAILS OF THE COMPETITION

All participating schools are automatically entered in the competition.

The best artworks from a primary and secondary school will each be awarded a prize of £1,000, to be spent at the teachers' discretion on art books or materials.

The winning images will be selected by a panel of Bank of America and Royal Academy representatives at an Awards Ceremony.
